

CORDOVA COMMUNITY RESOURCE GUIDE

The Cordova Community Resource Guide is funded by a grant through the State of Alaska.

The project is supported by Cordova Community Medical Center, Sound Alternatives, The Native Village of Eyak, The Cordova Family Resource Center, The Cordova School District, The Cordova Chamber of Commerce and The City of Cordova.

The Cordova Community Resource Guide provides information to support healthy choices, healthy families, and a healthy Cordova community. The intent is to include the names, contact information, and services of organizations and activities that promote individual, family, and community safety, health, and well-being. Our goal is to prevent harm and promote health.

FEBRUARY

Cordova Iceworm Festival

The first entire weekend of every February, Cordova rolls out the red carpet and welcomes guests from all over the world the annual Cordova Iceworm Festival. In 1961, a few Cordovans created the Iceworm Festival to break up the winter blues. Three days of fun-filled events showcase Cordova's talents, hospitality, and sense of humor. The Iceworm Variety Show features local performers and is the stage for the Miss Iceworm coronation. In the annual Survival Suit Race, groups of locals race down the docks, jump into survival gear, and dive into the icy harbor waters. The parade is a procession of excitement as the Iceworm makes its yearly appearance. Join us for the fun! Cordova Iceworm Festival is supported by volunteers just like you.

APRIL

Cordova Clean-Up Day

Each April, Cordovans take a day to spring clean. Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, community members meet in the morning to get supplies and location assignments for clean-up. The clean-up ends with a free BBQ lunch at the Cordova Center at noon for all volunteers!

MAY

Copper River Delta Shorebird Festival

Nearly three-quarters of all North American Shorebirds summer in Alaska and the Arctic tundra, and most of them come through here by way of the Pacific Flyway. Nearly 5 million shorebirds will make the tremendous journey from points as far as South America, Central America, and Mexico to this vital stopover site on the Copper River Delta, the largest undisturbed wetland in North America, to stage and feed before moving on to breeding grounds west and northward across the state. The Copper River Delta Shorebird Festival provides the ideal opportunity for adventurers of all ages to be part of this spectacle of migration. Many activities, workshops, and community events are offered throughout the festival. We invite you to join us in Cordova for the premier birding event in Alaska. For more information, visit www.coppershorebird.com.

JULY

Cordova Old Time 4th of July Celebration

Do not miss Cordova's Old-Time 4th of July Celebration. As always, this is a Free event! Come join the whole community in celebrating our nation's birth! The celebration is held at Hollis Henrichs Park (grassy field). This Cordova classic includes various fun activities and competitions, food vendors, and live music. Everyone is invited to attend this free event from noon to 3pm. Come out and help support local businesses and organizations at the grassy field next to the hospital!

Contact the Chamber of Commerce at 907-424-7260 if you want to volunteer or donate.

JULY

Copper River Salmon Jam

A weekend full of fun for the entire family. Live music, wild salmon, good food, arts & crafts, road races, dancing, and fun activities for kids... this weekend has it all! Visit www.salmonjam.org for complete details, and to sign up for the running events, get a table at the artisan craft fair or perform at Salmon Jam. All activities take place at Mt. Eyak Ski Hill unless otherwise noted.

Cordova 4-H Music Camp

The Cordova 4H Music Camp offers young people an opportunity to explore a diverse range of traditional acoustic music styles in a supportive and encouraging environment. Throughout the week, students will engage in four classes during the day, one of which will be performing at the end of camp, in addition to family events that are held around town. This is a great event to foster new friendships and old and bring the enjoyment of playing music into your life!

SEPTEMBER

Cordova Fungus Festival

Throughout this three-day event, Fungus Festival attendees will have opportunities to learn more about local mushrooms, participate in mushroom-related arts and crafts, and celebrate mushrooms and other wild harvested foods in a Wild Food Dinner. There will be daily guided forays, an identification table, and an expert keynote speaker. Bring your cameras and rain gear and join in the fun at the Cordova Fungus Festival in September. Volunteers support the Cordova Fungus Festival.

DECEMBER

Cordova Holiday Kickoff & Bazaar

Join the Cordova Chamber of Commerce in kicking off the holiday season. Come share some holiday cheer. Stop by the Cordova Center on Main Street the first Friday in December for hot cocoa and cookies while we all sing carols with the student choir. Cordova Volunteer Fire Department will escort Santa on his sleigh and light the tree. After the tree lighting, we can all head over to the Annual Holiday Bazaar to find great handcrafts and local vendors who have just the right thing for your Christmas shopping list. Cordova merchants get a bit of "Moonlight Madness" this time of year, and they keep late hours on the Friday nights before Christmas.
